Delegates Gather to the Annual Convention at Seventh-Street Church.

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT

He Made An Appeal for Greater Vigor in the Ministry of the Christian Church.

Delegates to the annual convention of Virginia Christian Missionary Soclety arrived in the city yesterday and met in evening session at the Seventh Street Christian Church last night. The convention proper begins to-morrow morning, but the time until the will be occupied by the Ministerial Association and the Christian Women's Board of Missions. The delegates in attendance represent about twenty thousand Disciples throughout the State, to whom some one hundred and fifty preachers minister. This convention follows the international convention of the Disciples recently held in Detroit, and representatives from the general foreign and home tives from the general foreign and home missionary boards will be in attendance

Rev. F. M. Rains, of Cincinnati, will represent the foreign missionary society and Rev. B. L. Smith, also of Cincinnati will address the convention in the in-terest of general American missions. DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.
The devotional exercises of the evening were conducted by Rev. A. J. Renforth, of Hampion, Va. The first address was that of Rev. F. F. Bullard, of Lynchburg, president of the ministerial association. Taking for his subject 'The Preacher as a Man,' the speaker made an earnest appeal for more vigorous physical, mental and spiritual manhood in the Christian ministry. In speaking of the educational qualifications of the preacher, the speaker pleaded for a higher of the educational qualifications of the preacher, the speaker pleaded for a higher education—less sectarian and more gen-eral; less visionary and more practical, and his plea for more spiritual living and his plea for more spiritual living was no less strons.

The second speaker of the evening was Rev. Peter Ainsile, of Baitimore, Md. His subject was the "Christian Over-Soul." The address itself dealt with the manifestations of genius, virtue and love in Christian character. Mr. Ainsile is a strong and forceful speaker and will be heard a number of times in the course of the convention. He speaks Thursday evening on "The World's Great Battle Fields."

NORTH CAROLINA SYNOD.

This Body Meets in Wilmington With Large Attendance.

With Large Attendance.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 3.—The Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina met this morning in the First Presbyterian Church in this city in its nirth annual session. Delegates have been arriving on all trains to-day and to-night.
Upwards of two hundred clergymen and ruling elders are here. The prospects point to a record-breaking attendance.

Hey. C. G. Vardell, D. D., of Red Springs, retiring moderator, preached an able sermon this morning. The first business session was then opened. Rev. A. T.
Giaham, D. D., of Davidson, was chosen moderator. Revs. W. R. McClelland, of Statesville, and E. D., Brown, of Kinston, were chosen temporary derks. The afternoon session was taken up with routine work, and standing committees were appointed.

It was announced that Synod would be

work, and standing committees were appointed.

It was announced that Synod would be entertained on a trolley ride to Wrights-ville Beach Wednesday afternoon, and on a river ride Friday-afternoon. To-night a big reception was tendered the delegates. During the evening a programme of music and short addresses were features. To-morrow morning Rev. Egbert W. Smith, of Greensboro, will preach at this service. The Synod yearly communion will be held.

RICHMOND COLLEGE

Foot-Ball Eleven in Good Condition for Coming Contest.

dition for Coming Contest.

The Richmond College foot-ball eleven returned to Richmond yesterday morning after spending several days in Norfolk, where they played Hampden-Sidney for the championship of the eastern division.

The Spiders are jubilant over the trip and the result of the game, they having defeated Hampden-Sidney by the score of 23 to 0, who in turn defeated Randolph-Macon 12 to 0, and the cup seems practically assured to them.

The players were charmed with the reception they met at the hands of the Norfolk people. The attendance was a little smaller than was expected, it is true, but the enthusiasm was great. Many courtesies were extended the teams by the alumni of the respective colleges, and among other things was a box party, given by Mansger Otto Wells, of the Granby Theatre, to both elevens. Their appreciation was amply shown by the generous applause which greeted many of the pretty chorus girls when they appared from time to time wearing the "Crimson and Blue" and the "Garnet and Gray."

The team was greatly improved by this and Gray."

The team was greatly improved by this game and showed in every play that they had recovered from that "staleness" which characterized them in their recent game with Danville.

Coach Vall—is putting them through some very severé training now to get them in shape for the game here Saturday with the heavy Columbian University eleven from Washington. This eleven, it is underslood, greatly outweighs the college team, but is not so fast as might be, and the college, by means of fast, hard playing, with a few of the latest foot-ball dodges, hopes to add one more scalp to her belt. The game will certainly be one full of interest for lovers of the sport.

A regular meeting of the Richmond College Athletic Association was held today, with Dr. Foushee in the chair. After the regular business was disposed of, it was suggested that the association dopt a college girl similar to the Yale, Princeton, Harvard girls that have become so oppular in recent years.

Several designs were presented and the one finally selected was a dashing, willowy creature, attired in a crimson golfing jacket and blue skirt, which seems to be having a slight altercation with the breezes, and waving aloft the regulation college pennant, with the single R. The contract was given to one of the local firms and in a short while every student will be the proud possessor of a girl. of a girl.
